Dear Rena:

As you may recall, we corresponded when we needed photos of street vending in the Fashion District for the Coalition to Save Small Business (see below), which is working on the street vending issue. Now we are trying to pull together an op-ed for the Los Angeles Business Journal, and we are hoping you might be able to help us once again. Would you have time to speak by phone today regarding the issues in the Fashion District? I tried to reach out to Kent but see that he is on vacation. If you can help, please let me know when and where I may reach you. Thanks!

Dear Rena:

Thanks so much. These are very helpful!

We would like to blow some of these up to put on poster boards. Can you send us the original JPEGs so we can do that? I can send a DropBox file if that would help to send them over. Please let me know.

Laura

Kent and Rena-

Meet Laura Mecoy, she's stepping in and helping us with media on the vending issue. We're looking for photos of out of control vending that we could blow up for boards at a press conference. I know you guys have dozens of pictures of Saturdays in your area.

Can you please coordinate with her on getting her photos?

Thanks

John
